

Home Group Discussion Guide for Global Christ-Like Expression An Interview With Steve Woods

Gavin Brown

21 July 2024

The following questions are designed to help groups explore the message above by challenging participants to consider how God is wanting them to apply it to their lives.

The questions are a guide to help lead discussion.

Please don't feel that all questions need to be asked, instead respond to the needs of your group.

If you have new people in your group, take the opportunity to introduce each other and clarify any expectations that are present in your group (such as confidentiality).

GETTING STARTED

1. Who is one person you have met that is an example of Jesus to you?
 - a. What was it about them that makes you choose them?
2. Was there a story or idea that Steve shared that God used to capture your attention?
 - a. What was it, and why did it capture your attention?

REFLECTING ON THE MESSAGE

Key Scriptures: Mark 3:7-10; Mark 3 :13-19
(Read Mark 3:7-10)

1. What can we learn from this passage about the effect of the Kingdom of God when it is shared?
2. What are some examples you have heard / seen where the attractiveness of the Kingdom of God is evident?
3. What characteristic makes you attractive as a follower of Jesus in your workplace, home or community group?
(Read Mark 3:13-19)
4. What is the importance of what Jesus does in this passage?
5. What are some examples of what empowering others looks like in our context?
6. Who in your own story encourages and empowered you in a significant way?
7. How can you be this kind of person to someone else?

OPPORTUNITY FOR PRAYER

Our Home Groups are the primary place for pastoral care to occur within the Church. We would encourage you to take the opportunity to pray for each other in this space.

Please also take the opportunity to pray for the work of BWA this week.
