

What Are You Waiting For?

Luke 2:25-33

Luke 2:25-33

²⁵ Now there was a man in Jerusalem called Simeon, who was righteous and devout. He was waiting for the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was on him. ²⁶ It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not die before he had seen the Lord's Messiah.

Luke 2:25-33

²⁷ Moved by the Spirit, he went into the temple courts. When the parents brought in the child Jesus to do for him what the custom of the Law required, ²⁸ Simeon took him in his arms and praised God, saying:

Luke 2:25-33

²⁹ “Sovereign Lord, as you have promised,
you may now dismiss your servant in peace.

³⁰ For my eyes have seen your salvation,

³¹ which you have prepared in the sight of all nations:

³² a light for revelation to the Gentiles,
and the glory of your people Israel.”

³³ The child’s father and mother marveled at what was said about him.

Luke 2:25

²⁵ Now there was a man in Jerusalem called Simeon, who was righteous and devout. He was waiting for the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was on him.

A close-up photograph of a green evergreen branch, likely a spruce or fir, with fine needles. The branch is the central focus, extending from the upper left towards the lower right. The background is dark, filled with numerous out-of-focus, warm-toned circular lights (bokeh) in shades of yellow and orange, creating a soft, festive atmosphere. The text "Are You Waiting For Comfort?" is overlaid in the center in a clean, white, sans-serif font.
